

Bonnie,
To a real girl,
sweet and cute girl,
who I have had of fun with. Lots of luck,
Gale March

Bonnie,
So a crazy
d-head. Best luck in everything.
Steh

Bonnie,
So a real and sharp girl who
I am happy to know.
I am all the fun we have had in school.
Best luck in whatever you do.

Eleanor

Bonnie
So a real sweet girl with a personality to match. Good luck in everything
you do.

A friend always Mary

Bonnie
To a sweet girl
stay as nice as you are and you'll go far.
Luck in the future
years no matter what life brings your way.

Bonnie
I am all our good times
in S.L. & Co. & the good
when I get out of school, because I'm tired of being a nailman for you & your girlfriend
If it wasn't for you, I don't think I would of passed school.
Thank you & don't forget always

*WELCOME TO LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL AND
THE 1961 RODIS*

DEDICATION

The subject of any yearbook is quite naturally the school. Therefore, what is more fitting than to dedicate this yearbook to a man who has been an indispensable working part of our school? To a man who gives so generously of his time for the benefit of others, to a man who obtains the best by giving his best, to a man whose efforts are "music to our ears," we are proud to dedicate our yearbook. Let it be known to all that we take great pleasure in dedicating the 1961 Rodis to MR. CHARLES HENDERSON.

CHARLES HENDERSON

FOREWORD

We present the '61 Rodis—
Reminiscence Of Days In School—as the over-all picture of our school. We, the Rodis Staff of 1961, hope that these days will be an everlasting memory of the story of our school—a story of how we worked, how we played, and how we lived at Lincoln High School.
May it bring happy memories!

LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL MIDLAND, PENNSYLVANIA

ALMA MATER

Come, students, let us sing and praise,
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Midland.
In chorus let our voices raise,
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Midland.
Our banner true is gold and blue
To her is our allegiance due,
Her name we'll guard,
Her honor too,
Hail to Alma Mater.

For Lincoln High we'll cheer and sing,
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Midland.
In triumph let our voices ring,
Rah, Rah, Rah, for Midland.
Upon Ohio's shore we strive
To Lincoln's memory keep alive
Till at life's goal we shall arrive
We'll cheer for Alma Mater.

DR. RALPH H. JEWELL

Dr. Jewell is many persons in one—administrator and builder. To know him is to understand why Midland has moved forward, no detours allowed, no backward glances. Carry the good from the past into the future—welcome the new; it will stand the test—and you will meet his challenge. His versatility extends from his work into his personality. There we find a broad sense of humor and openhearted kindness coupled with an uncompromising determination in our common task of making a better school.

WILLIAM A. WALTERS

Mr. Walters, principal of M.H.S., is a well liked and well respected individual. His methods of dealing with student and faculty problems each day are a credit to his recognition of self-rule as long as students conduct themselves in an adult manner. He relies on good judgment and a sense of fairness to help him keep peace and cooperation between teachers and students. Every day he deals with student problems, supervises school activities and maintains strict discipline in a fitting blend of authority and understanding. The ability with which he handles his job makes it difficult to realize how big it is.

MIDLAND SCHOOL BOARD

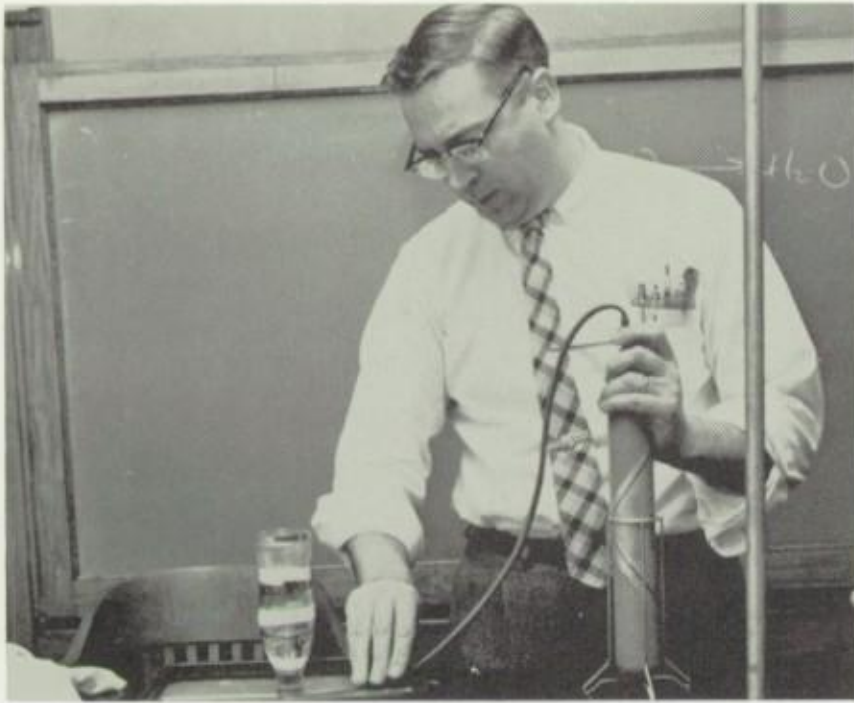

Mr. J. Uccellini, Mr. L. Roach, Dr. R. Jewell, Mr. J. Morrison, Mr. E. Cilli, Mr. J. Shovlin, Mr. M. Newman, Mr. A. Aloï.

"Scratch the green rind of a sapling, or wantonly twist it in the soil, and a scarred or crooked oak will tell of the act for centuries to come. So it is with the teachings of youth, which make impressions on the mind and heart that are to last forever."

SENIORS

"Knowledge does not comprise all which is contained in the large term of education. The feelings are to be disciplined; the passions are to be restrained; true and worthy motives are to be inspired; a profound religious feeling is to be instilled and pure morality inculcated under all circumstances. All this is comprised in education."

—DANIEL WEBSTER

SENIORS

SENIOR OFFICERS

Stella Ordich—HISTORIAN, James Perkins—PRESIDENT, Betty DeProspero—SECRETARY-TREASURE
Bernice Daniels—VICE PRESIDENT

The graduating seniors of the class of 1961 are, this June, ending a twelve year career of schooling. However, graduation is an "end" only to those who wish it to be so. To the unimaginative, to the unresourceful, life has achieved its apex and will now level off into mediocrity. To the ambitious, to the creative, life now soars to new heights, presenting new challenges and untold rewards. These graduates-to-be have the opportunity to determine the course of their lives; their future years can be determined by their present actions. May these seniors not stop here but may they continue to apply and to increase their store of knowledge, enriching not only their lives but also the world around them.

Membership into the NHS is an achievement of note, since each member must excel in character, scholarship, leadership, and service. These qualities must be maintained throughout the membership span of the student.

Character is a product of daily thoughts, words, and deeds. Character is the crown and glory of life. It is not what others think you are but what you really are.

Scholarship is the power of the mind that can erase ignorance through scientific investigation of truth. Scholarship inspires a love of the beautiful, an appreciation of truth, and a reverence for God.

The quality of Leadership is unselfishness in serving others. Leadership can see and do what is best for the group without benefit of selfish gain or fame.

Service is to lose oneself in enthusiasm and cooperation with others for a common good. Service is given not for love of praise but for love of fellow man. Service stands for sacrifice—sacrifice for an ideal without thought of material awards.

SENIOR DANCE

On the night of Nov. 18, 1960, the Senior Class of Midland High sponsored their annual Senior Dance. The theme, Ice Palace, was expertly carried out by a decorating committee organized by senior homeroom teachers, Mr. Francis Lamberson and Miss Marie Milanovich. Bobby Caputo's Orchestra provided music for the dance.

Following the dance the seniors enjoyed dinner and entertainment at the Post Prom Party.

The Senior Class officers and their guests lead the grand march, anticipating a very enjoyable evening.

Dancing was enjoyed to the enchanting music of Bobby Caputo's orchestra.

Ushers dressed for the theme Ice Palace, included E. Cromer, M. Hapach, H. Begg, N. Maloney and A. Pacella.

GYM EXHIBITION

The Gym Exhibition was the feature of our May Day celebration. It was given by the girls' and boys' physical education classes. Under the direction of our physical education teachers—Miss Moll, Miss O'Hara, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Hamilton.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

A wonderful summer that had been planned by a group of teenagers is suddenly blown sky-high when a flirty southern belle arrives from Tugboat, South Carolina, to spend a month with her "kissin' kinfolk" up North.

This three act comedy, entitled, "Her Kissin' Cousin," was presented by the Jr. Class and directed by Mr. John Hineman on March 18, 1960.

SEATED: R. Sigal, M. Kosanovich, S. Van Fossan
STANDING: D. Orlando, J. Tozana, B. Dominici, F. Nuzzo, S. Tonti, N. Popovich.

But Harry, I was only dancing with Tom.

"Harrison High" is a moving drama about a high school run not by the administration but by an overzealous alumni and a group of teenagers "in the know." This situation doesn't last—a history teacher tries to teach his subject and flunks a football player; the kids across the track try to find a place in Harrison's society. From these factors a scandal develops, a scandal that involves both the faculty, students, and parents of Harrison, a scandal that causes a whole town to awaken and take a look at itself.

This fine play was presented by the Senior Class of '61 on November 22 under the able direction of Mrs. John Shovelin III.

"Like them? I've watched you knit them for the last month!"

... HARRISON HIGH

"Stop, Griff! You're hurting him!"

"A riot at the dance! But how did it start?"

"Buddy's dead! He fell over the railing."

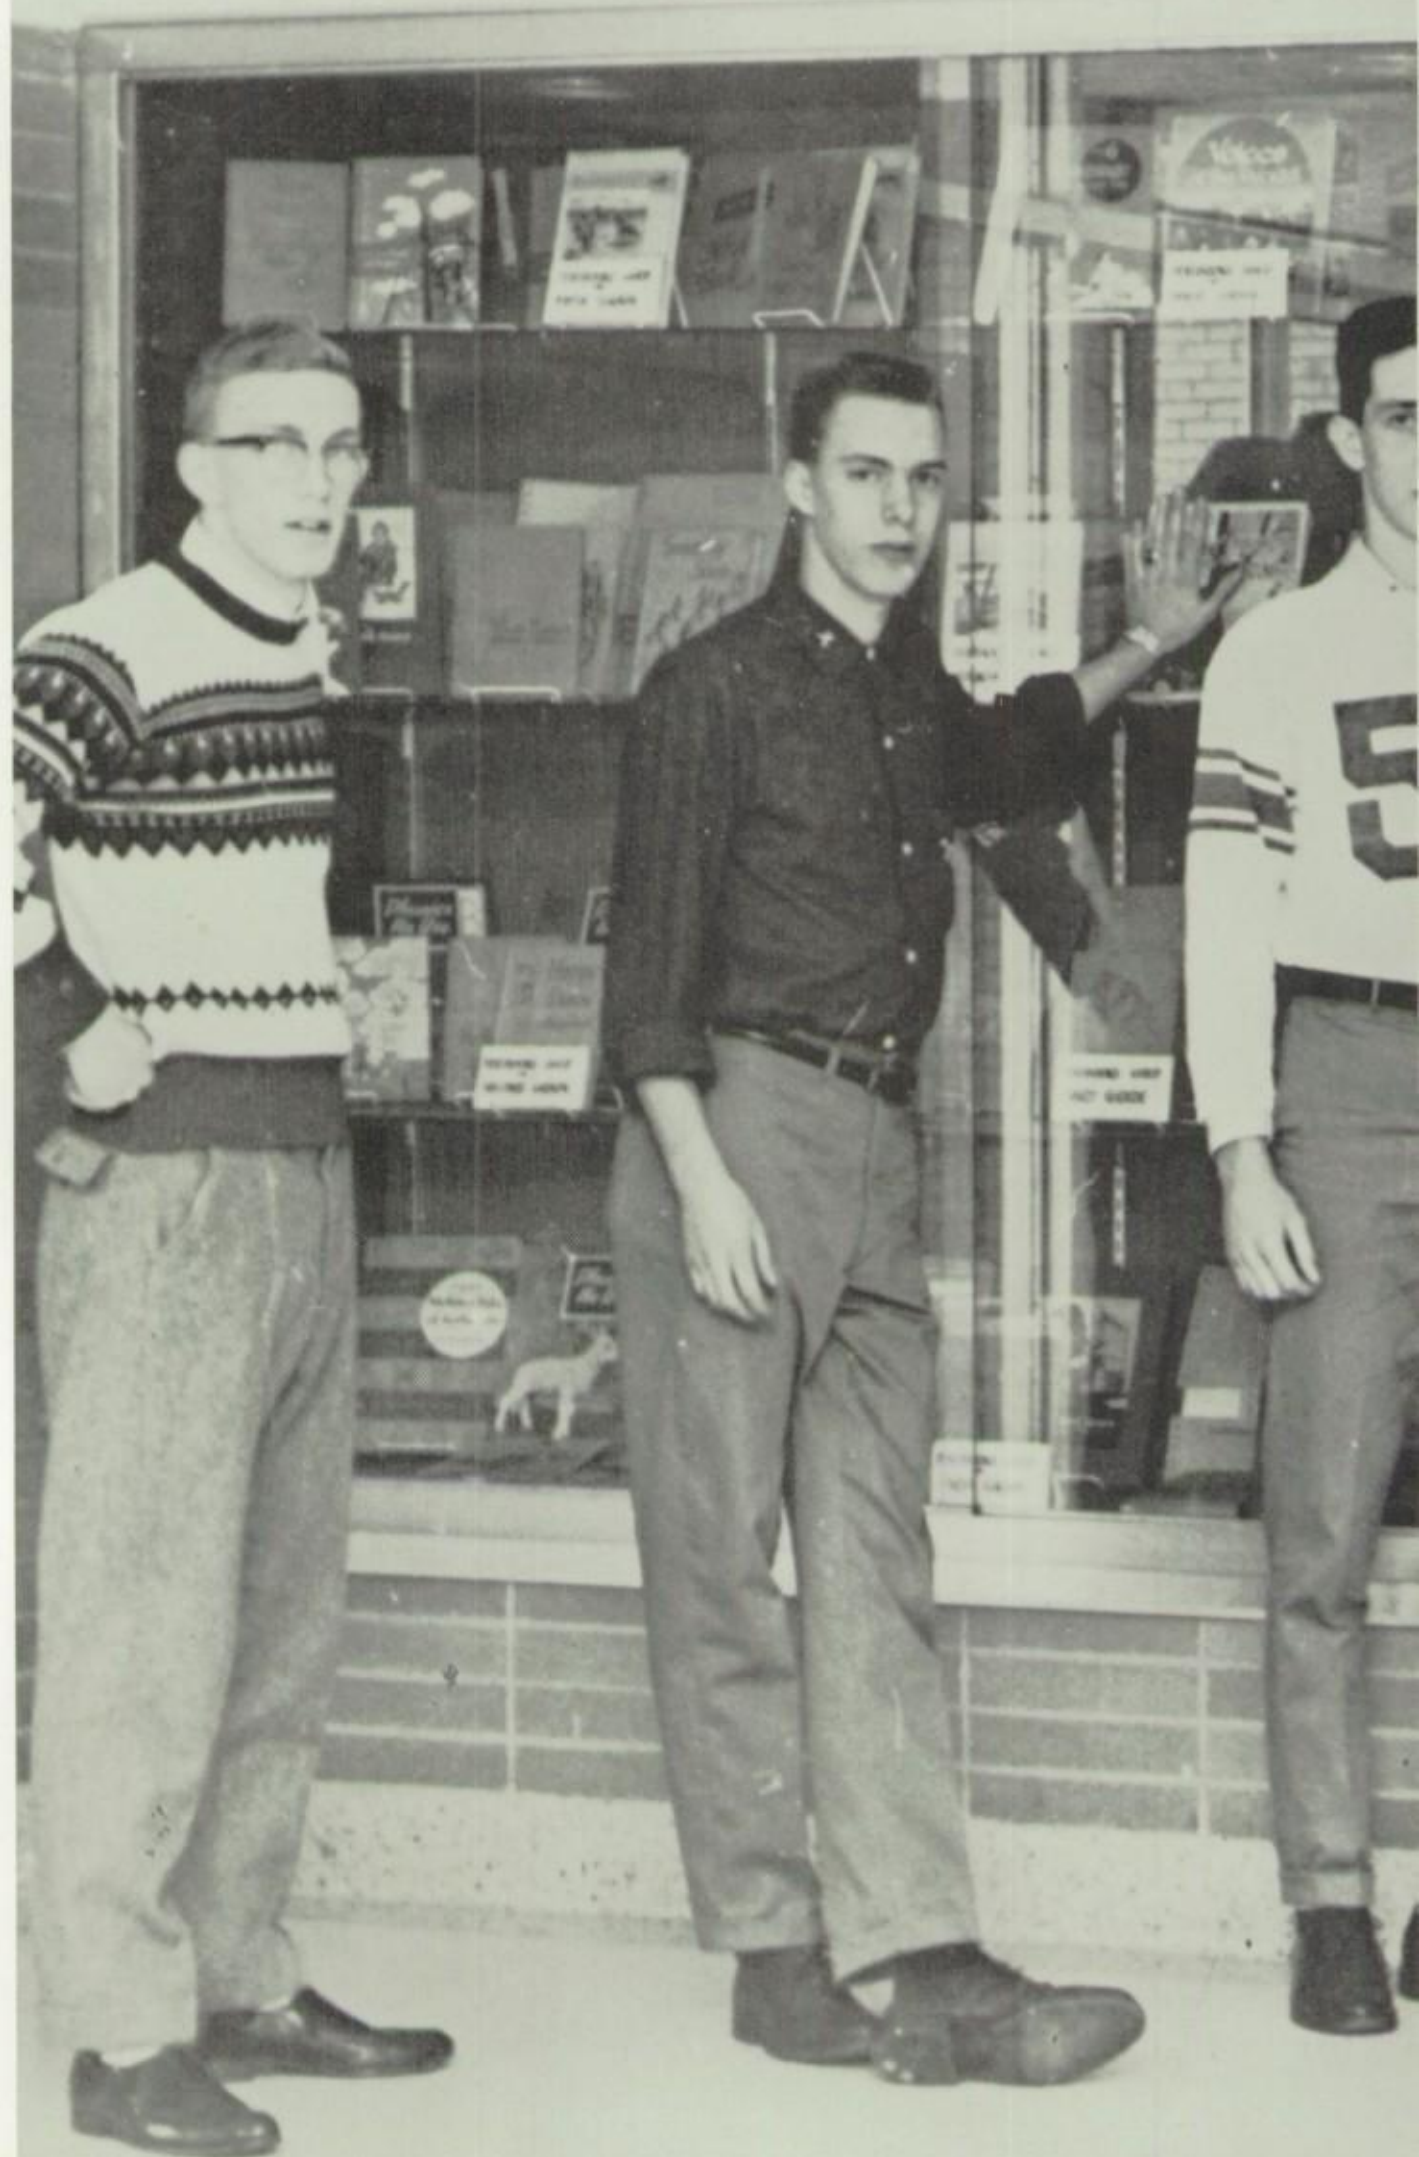

Mrs. Shovelin directs her players in how to enact a scene.

ATHLETICS

"A sound mind in a sound body; if the former be the glory of the latter, the latter is indispensable to the former." . . .

OUR CLASS OF '61 by Cheryl Turner

As graduation is drawing near,
 When our separate ways we'll go,
 We remember days we first spent here
 And the friends we grew to know.

Only a few will remember
 The anxiety in first days here,
 With every one of us lost again,
 Every eye was full of fear.

Some teachers were impatient,
 Not at all fond of our ways,
 Thought we the smartest if you recall,
 Yes, those were the good old days.

Remember when we were freshmen?
 At last a name had we;
 Assemblies we were included in
 And we attended joyfully.

We'll think of our graying teachers
 And what they must have gone through,
 Trying to impress thick crusted minds
 With the importance of Waterloo.

Latin students and Spanish too
 Were frequently very lost,
 But never more so than in Hokman's class
 Where more than one head was tossed

Beowulf was a senior's chore,
 One which was often skipped,
 But somehow always in the end
 We found that we had been tripped.

Science wasn't easy for some,
 For others it was a snap;
 Chemistry had its ups and downs
 As it interfered with naps.

We'll think of Proms and Senior Dances,
 And fun and laughs we shared
 Of decorating long into the night
 With friends for whom we cared.

It will be strange to see again,
 After long years and elapses,
 The friends we once held very dear
 And with whom we shared our classes.

Now the time has come for us
 The Triumphant isles to see;
 As seniors only view them once
 On their own Graduation Eve.

PEOPLE WE KNOW

*AS THE SCHOOL YEAR ENDS
SO ENDS THE 1961 RODIS*

May 7, 1941.

P.S.

I know you'll make a swell nurse. No matter how sick a person may be, you'll probably have them laughing.
Gracious! just think of I have you. The other nurses will go crazy.

Bonnie -

one of my closest friends I have ever had. Remember all the talks we have had about every subject in the world. It was never the same subject two days in a row. Never forget our many laughs and the times we would pretend to be mad but it would never last more than 5 minutes.

I wish you have the best of luck in your years following school and especially if you get the career that you want. (A nurse) I want to wish you the best of luck in all you do and with that special someone, whoever he is. If you do become a nurse I want to be your first ~~pat~~ patient. Your motto will probably be. "Doctor Dirty cure, kill thirty." ha ha Seriously though, I know you, Hester, and I are really going to miss each other. So come to visit me some time okay. Good luck forever and may happiness be yours always.

R.M.A.

P.S. How could you ever get me? Joyce

Dear Bonnie,

Remember all the fun we've had both in and out of school.
Stay as nice as you are and you will go far in everything you do.
